

Centre for Asian Business and Economics (CABE), Asia Society Australia & RMIT Asia Trade and Innovation Hub

Leadership in Asia

The Centre for Asian Business and Economics (The University of Melbourne), Asia Society Australia and the RMIT Asia Trade and Innovation Hub proudly invite you to a discussion on Leadership in Asia with Asia Society's global CEO and President, Dr Kyung-wha Kang.

In conversation with Anthony Bubalo, CEO of Asia Society Australia, Dr Kang will explore how leaders can navigate challenges and opportunities in the world's most important and dynamic region – Asia.

Dr. Kang was the first female Minister of Foreign Affairs of South Korea and has held senior positions in the Korean Foreign Ministry and the United Nations.

This is a Public Event. The fireside chat will be delivered in-person. Join us for pre-discussion drinks and canapes from 5:30pm to 6:30pm. The fireside chat will commence at 6:30pm.
