Detailed Description

As this is your opportunity to sell your nomination to the Australian Accounting Hall of Fame Selection Committee, the more information you provide on the candidate's contributions, the better.

When preparing your nomination it is critical to articulate clearly how the nominee has contributed to the advancement of accounting.

With this in mind, and as further guidance, you may wish to consider some of the following:

- In what role(s) or area(s) has the nominee excelled?
- How has the nominee demonstrated service worthy of recognition?
- Impact of the nominee's achievements -
Describe the impact that these achievements have had on the nominee's particular field. Explain how these achievements position the nominee in the history of the field. You may also comment on how the nominee has influenced the accounting community and/or inspired the general public.
- Over what period of time has the nominee made a significant contribution?
- Other recognition of the nominee -
*Has the nominee's contribution been recognised elsewhere (e.g. in the media, by other awards, professional/ interest groups or through local government)? List any awards granted to the nominee both within and outside the accounting field, including honours and the dates these were made. You may wish to submit other supporting documents (see below) such as magazine articles, newspaper stories, and other citations, which feature the nominee and support your belief that the individual deserves induction into the Australian Accounting Hall of Fame.

What makes this person stand out from others?

In answering this section please attach your responses on separate pages.

 Where possible, support material should be provided electronically (e.g. scans of media clippings, jpg files of photographs) on a CD/DVD posted with the nomination. Nominations will not be disadvantaged where this is not possible.*

Please attach a separate document for this section.
