STEP STUDENT EMPLOYABILITY PROGRAM

EQUIP YOURSELF FOR CAREER SUCCESS

GLOBAL MANAGEMENT CONSULTING

NOVEMBER 2019 | KUALA LUMPUR | SANTIAGO

DECEMBER 2019 | SAN FRANCISCO

Now that you've attended the GMC information session, what's next?

STEP 1

Check that you meet the selection criteria:

- You are enrolled in the Bachelor of Commerce;
- You will have completed a minimum of 175 credit points total accumulated at the commencement of the subject including MGMT20001 Organisational Behaviour;
- You have checked that there is capacity within your study plan for a 12.5 point level-3 management subject;
- Your weighted average mark (WAM) is 65% or higher;
- You have NOT previously participated in MGMT30012 Management Consulting.

STEP 2

Apply online by 30 June 2019

Submit the following with your application:

- CV/resume (2 pages maximum in PDF format)
- Personal statement/cover letter
- Photograph

You'll find the online application here:

<http://go.unimelb.edu.au/vr7x>

Apply via the Apply Now section

Note: There is a section in the application where you can select your city preferences. Although we try to accommodate these preferences, we are unable to guarantee that you will be offered your first preference. If you wish to only be considered for one city and do not wish to travel to the other destinations, this is an option but not a guarantee.

STEP 3

Attend a group interview (invitation only)

If shortlisted, you will be asked to attend a 30-minute group interview in week commencing Monday 29 July 2019.

Final selection will be based on interview performance, demonstrated and relevant experience, motivation and your attitude to teamwork.

STORIES FROM GMC PROGRAM

Interested to hear about the experiences of previous Global Management Consulting students? We've compiled a selection of stories from various intakes of the GMC to highlight what it's really like to take part in the subject.
